

Pocatello

Helping Children & Youth Succeed

Bannock Youth Foundation

Shelter & services for at-risk youth & their families

Big Brothers/ Big Sisters

Adult mentors for at-risk youth

Camp Fire Boys & Girls

Healthy activities for youth

Camp Taylor

Camp for underprivileged youth & disabled

D.A.R.E. / G.R.E.A.T.

Drug & gang resistance education for youth

Girls Scouts of Silver Sage Council

Educational programming for youth to build character & skills

Grand Teton Boy Scout Council

Character & leadership building for youth

Healthy Pocatello, Healthy Youth

Research & activities supporting youth

Idaho Education Association (I.E.A.) Children's Fund

Winter clothing for needy students in Bingham County

Our Gathering Place

High school afterschool program & nutrition

Pocatello Hockey Association

Healthy activities for youth & adults

SOPHIA Foundation

Middle school afterschool program & nutrition

United Way Success By 6

Early learning opportunities for children

Increasing Self Sufficiency

Aid For Friends

Homeless shelter & support services

American Red Cross of Greater Idaho

Disaster response

DAWN Enterprises, Inc.

Sheltered workshop for disabled adults

The Idaho Foodbank

Helps local agencies feed the hungry

North Bingham County Foodbank

Food for low-income families and individuals

The Salvation Army

Emergency services for low-income community's basic needs

SEICAA (Southeast Idaho Community Action Agency)

Emergency and preventative services for low-income basic needs

Promoting Health, Healing & Safe Communities

Bingham County Crisis Center

Shelter & services for domestic violence survivors

Bright Tomorrows

Support services for child sexual abuse survivors

CASA

Court advocates for abused/neglected children

Compassionate Friends

Support for families grieving the loss of a child

Family Service Alliance

Shelter & services for domestic violence survivors

Help, Inc.

Services for child sex abuse survivors; childcare development

Pocatello Free Clinic

Health care for uninsured low-income families

Survivors of Suicide in South Eastern Idaho

Prevention & support for survivors of suicide

Enriching Seniors' Lives

Blackfoot Senior Citizens Center

Nutrition, resources, & activities for low-income seniors

Foster Grandparents

Seniors mentoring special needs children

Greater Pocatello Senior Center

Nutrition, resources, & activities for low-income seniors

Meals On Wheels (SEICAA)

Daily nutrition for low-income seniors & the disabled

Radio Reading Service

Communication link for the blind

RSVP (SEICAA)

Senior volunteer corps helping children learn to read & serving the community

Shelley Senior Citizens Center

Nutrition, resources, & activities for low-income seniors

Lend a hand!

The United Way of Southeastern Idaho believes that the challenges our communities face can be solved by the collective participation of many. If you want a hands-on experience with one of our partner agencies, visit our web site to let United Way show you a way you can "Lend a Hand" by volunteering.

www.idaho.unitedway.org/volunteer